

Life Application Questions

The Betrayal

John 18:1-12

Scratching The Surface

When is a moment in your life when you have felt most out of control?

The Heart Of The Matter

What's one thing you remember from the sermon on Sunday about Jesus being betrayed by Judas?

Why is it that so many different people were losing their mind when Jesus was arrested?

Why was it that Jesus was able to stay so calm and collected?

Digging Deeper

Can you list some of the different ways that people respond to Jesus in this passage?

What are the different pictures of strength and weakness in this passage? Because of them, who should be incorol and confident here and who ought to be worried?

What are some of the different things that Jesus says in this passage that display the degree to which he is in control?

Read Exodus 3:13-15

What are the echoes of that passage in Exodus that you can see in this part of John? What is John trying to say to us about who Jesus is by writing the story this way?

What are some of the potential different layers of meaning that can be taken from what Jesus says in verse 9?

Optional Extra

As you pray at the end read through Psalm 23 and think about how you can see Jesus journey across the Kidron in this Psalm.